1. No matter how carefully our work has been planned, changes sometimes come up and we must adjust our priorities accordingly. Can you share an example of a time when you had to modify your plans to handle an unexpected change?

- What was your original plan?
- What was the change that came up?
- How did you change course?
- What was the outcome?

2. Relationship Building can impact one's success. Describe for me a time when you relied on a relationship you had built in order to achieve your goals.

- With whom did you establish this relationship?
- How did you develop this relationship?
- How did this relationship help you achieve your goals?
